News Items from VIP and VIP Eye

This section of the report contains brief news analysis items mentioning BvDEP. These news items appeared in VIP (from July 2006 forward) and in VIP Eye (until July 2006). VIP Eye was a twice-monthly news analysis publication that ceased publication in July 2006, when its content was folded into a redesigned VIP. News analysis items are organised in chronological order, with the most recent first.

These news analysis items have not been altered or edited since their original publication and reflect the company and the industry at the time of original publication. Each item is labelled with its date of original publication.

Unless otherwise noted, the author of each item is Pam Foster, editor of VIP.

Product Reviews and Articles from VIP

This section of the report contains product reviews and articles from VIP that provide more in-depth coverage of Factiva than the news items in the previous section. To keep the content in context, the pages have been extracted without alteration from the publication and ordered chronologically, with the most recent first.

Because these articles have not been altered since their original publication, they may not accurately reflect the current offerings from the company. The date of original publication appears in the footer of every page.

Unless otherwise noted, the author of each item is Pam Foster, editor of VIP.
